For over 800 years, Franciscans have dedicated their lives to serve among the poor. Franciscans International voices their concerns at the highest level of world diplomacy to effect positive change.

What we do

Franciscans International works at the United Nations (UN) to address Human Rights injustices that impact on the poor and most vulnerable. Together with Franciscan Brothers and Sisters working at the grassroots, we bring their issues of concern to influence the world's decision-makers.

Who we are

FI is a shared ministry of the global Franciscan Family and a Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO) with UN General Consultative Status.

Urgent issues we recently addressed

- Canada: Protection for victims of human trafficking and migrant workers
- Côte d'Ivoire: Right to food and education
- Honduras: Violations and abuse against human rights defenders and religious
- Italy: Right to water and good health standards
- Pakistan: Killings and communal violence against the Christian minority
